DISCLAIMER

The attention of the Petroleum and Natural Gas Senior Staff Association of Nigeria (PENGASSAN) has been drawn to a Facebook comment posted by a certain individual with Facebook identity; Jomo Iroha, purporting the President of the Petroleum and Natural Gas Senior Staff Association of Nigeria, Comrade Francis Olabode Johnson, to have issued a statement over the sale of the Nigeria National Petroleum Corporation (NNPC).

We hereby state categorically that at no time did our President issued such statement either to the press or on any mass media platform. We are saddened that the said Jomo Iroha could go as far as originating a false news and signing same using the PENGASSAN President's name.

However, for further clarification on the position and stand of our Association on the status of NNPC, the four Refineries and to a large extent, the nation's Oil and Gas industry we refer the general public to our Communique of December 13, 2018 which was also published in two National Dailies, Punch and Daily Trust of January 24, 2019.

PENGASSAN

PENGASSAN is apolitical, neutral and a trade union of repute with the main objectives of protecting jobs and improving the welfare of its members.

We hereby urged the general public to disregard the mischief intended by Jomo Iroha to score cheap political mileage and acceptance. We implore the public especially the mass media to avail themselves to the open door policy of our Association and the entire leadership and get clarification on any issues.
